Premier Breast Surgeons of Southwest Ohio

Kira Schofield, MD

Breast cancer. Two tiny words that strike fear in the hearts of women every day. Dr. Kira Schofield understands.

Kira Schofield, MD is Middletown's only female breast surgeon and practices in the beautiful full-service Women's Center at Atrium Medical Center.

Dr. Schofield believes in thoroughly informing the patient of all the treatment options available, including consultations with medical and radiation oncologists, to help the patient make the decision that is right for her.

We strive to minimize the waiting time for appointments, tests and results...because we understand.

New patients are welcome. To make an appointment, call (513) 425-7110. Accepting most insurances.
